The Extremal Principle — problem 3.4

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Start with several piles of chips. Two players move alternately. A move consists in splitting every pile with more than one chip into two piles. The one who makes the last move wins. For what initial conditions does the first player win and what is his winning strategy ?