Sequences — problem 9.66

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

In how many ways can you fill a $2 \times 2 \times n$ box with $1 \times 1 \times 2$ bricks ? A table suggests that the values a_{2n} are squares. Can you prove this ?