Functional Equations — problem 11.9

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

The rational function f has the property $f(x) = f(1/x)$. Show that f is a rational function of $x + 1/x$.

Remark. A rational function is the quotient of two polynomials.