Geometry : Vectors — problem 12.1.42

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Equilateral triangles are erected to the outside on the sides of a convex quadrilateral. Prove that the segment PQ joining the vertices of ABP and CDQ is perpendicular to the segment RS joining the centers of the two other triangles, and in addition, $|PQ| = \sqrt{3}|RS|$.