Easy Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.1.49

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

A point P is chosen inside a square, and parallels to the sides and diagonals are drawn through P. They split the square into eight parts, which we label 1 and 2 alternately around P. Prove that the parts labeled 1 and those labeled 2 have equal areas.