Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.40

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

The next 5 problems treat strategies of getting out of the woods.

A mathematician got lost in the woods. He knows its area S, but nothing else about its shape, except that it has no holes. Show that he can get out of the woods by walking not more than $2\sqrt{\pi S}$ miles.