Enumerative Combinatorics — problem 5.5

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

$2n$ objects of each of three kinds are given to two persons, so that each person gets $3n$ objects. Prove that this can be done in $3n^2 + 3n + 1$ ways.