Enumerative Combinatorics — problem 5.37

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Consider all $2^n - 1$ nonempty subsets of the set $\{1, 2, \ldots, n\}$. For every such subset, we find the product of the reciprocals of each of its elements. Find the sum of all these products.