Number Theory — problem 6.55

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Find the smallest positive integer with the property that, if you move the first digit to the end, the new number is 1.5 times larger than the old one.