Inequalities — problem 7.34

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Let $x, y > 0$, and let s be the smallest of the numbers x, $y + 1/x$, $1/y$. Find the greatest possible value of s. For which x, y is this value assumed ?