Inequalities — problem 7.36

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Find a point P inside the triangle ABC, such that the product $PL \cdot PM \cdot PN$ is maximal. Here L, M, N are the feet of the perpendiculars from P onto BC, CA, AB (BrMO 1978).