Transformation Geometry — problem 12.2.3

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

A point P is joined to the vertices of triangle ABC. The straight lines $AP = y$, $BP = z$, $CP = x$ are reflected at the angle bisectors passing through A, B, C to v, w, u, respectively. Prove that u, v, w pass through one point Q.