Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.69

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Prove that, for any tetrahedron, there exist two planes such that the ratio of the areas of the projections onto them is $\geq \sqrt{2}$ (AUO 1978).