Games — problem 13.9

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Given a triangle PQR of area 1, A chooses a point $X \in PQ$. Then B chooses a point $Y \in QR$. Then again A chooses a point $Z \in PR$. The aim of the first player is to maximize $|XYZ|$. What is the largest area he can secure for himself?