The Art Gallery Problem (2.25)

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

The Art Gallery Problem. An art gallery has the shape of a simple n-gon. Find the minimum number of watchmen needed to survey the building, no matter how complicated its shape.