Enumerative Combinatorics — problem 5.8

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

(a) Is it possible to label the edges of a cube by $1, 2, \ldots, 12$ so that, at each vertex, the labels of the edges leaving that vertex have the same sum ?

(b) A suitable edge label is replaced by 13. Now, is equality of the eight sums possible ?