Enumerative Combinatorics — problem 5.32

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Consider a circular row of n seats. A child sits on each. Each child may move by at most one seat. Find the number a_n of ways they can rearrange.