Number Theory — problem 6.164

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

There are white and black balls in an urn. If you draw two balls at random, the probability is 1/2 to get a mixed couple. What can you conclude about the contents of the urn ?