Number Theory — problem 6.89

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

If you move the last digit of a number to the front, then it becomes nine times larger. Find the smallest such number.