Polynomials — problem 10.32

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Let a, b be integers. Then the polynomial $(x-a)^2(x-b)^2+1$ is not the product of two polynomials with integral coefficients.