Polynomials — problem 10.45

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Let $p(x)$ be a polynomial over $\mathbb{Z}$. If $p(a) = p(b) = p(c) = -1$ with integers a, b, c, then $p(x)$ has no integral zeros.