Polynomials — problem 10.71

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

The polynomial $f(x)$ has integral coefficients and assumes values divisible by 3 for the integral arguments $k, k+1, k+2$. Show that $f(m)$ is a multiple of 3 for every integer m.