Geometry : Vectors — problem 12.1.37

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Regular triangles with vertices D and E, respectively, are erected outwardly on the sides AB and BC of $\triangle ABC$. Prove that the midpoints of BD, BE and AC are vertices of a regular triangle.