Transformation Geometry — problem 12.2.10

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

A, B, C, D are four points on a line. Through A and B, draw a pair (a, b) of parallels and, through C and D, another pair (c, d) of parallels so that $(a, b) \cup (c, d) = PQRS$ is a square.