Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.8

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

A convex quadrilateral is cut by its diagonals into four triangles with integral areas. Prove that the product of the four areas is a perfect square.