Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.9

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Every isometry f of a finite point set H is such that $f(H) = H$. In particular, the centroid S of $H = \{A_1, A_2, \ldots, A_n\}$ is a fixed point of f.