Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.61

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Prove that the sum of the lengths of all edges of a polyhedron is greater than $3d$, where d is the distance of two vertices A and B of maximal distance.