Harder Geometrical Problems — problem 12.3.2.97

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Two points are given on the surface of a wooden ball, which are not antipodes. Construct a great circle (circle of largest radius) through these two points.