Games — problem 13.36

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

A solitaire game. Each edge of a 1997-polyhedron is assigned the number $+1$ or -1. Show that there exists a vertex such that the product of the numbers on all edges meeting in that vertex must be $+1$.