Further Strategies — problem 14.9

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Two black knights stand on the lower corners of a 3×3 chessboard, and two white knights on the upper corners. White and black knights must be interchanged by legal moves onto free squares. Find the minimum number of moves needed (quoted by Lucas in 1894 from an earlier source in 1512).