Further Strategies — problem 14.67

A. Engel — Problem-Solving Strategies · 1998

Among the terms of the sequence $a_1 = 2$, $a_{n+1} = \lfloor (3/2)a_n \rfloor$, $n \in \mathbb{N}$, there are infinitely many even and infinitely many odd numbers.